Governor

Declaration

Whereas, the Utah Bankers Association, along with the American Bankers Association Education Foundation, recognizes April 27, 2010 as National Teach Children to Save Day;

Whereas, the recent economic recession helps remind families of the importance of creating a savings cushion, ideally equivalent to three to six month's worth of income;

Whereas, the bankers of Utah recognize a responsibility to our schools and communities to provide financial education to youth about saving and budgeting;

Whereas, we recognize that our young people are the leaders of tomorrow;

Whereas, today's school children will inherit $12 trillion over the next twenty years, the largest transfer of wealth in history;

Whereas, it is imperative to help our children learn how to handle money that will be passing through their hands in the course of their lifetime; and

Whereas, basic education in financial and economic studies can help form a lifetime of positive habits devoted to saving, wise use of credit, and fiscal responsibility;

Now, Therefore, I, Gary R. Herbert, Governor of the State of Utah do hereby declare April 27, 2010 as

Teach Children To Save Day
